

Review form

The title of the reviewed article:
---	--

Please assess the quality of the article, by reviewing the following aspects:

Mark with X the for appropriate assessment of each criterion:	Deficient	Good
The title is clear and in accordance with the content of the article
The abstract clearly summarizes the content of the article
The keywords are well selected and representative for the field
The article contains a general exposition of the most relevant and newest accomplishments in the field
The objectives are clearly presented
The methodology is coherently presented and correctly implemented
The sources employed are credible and representative
The conclusions are clear and summarize the essential aspects of the research
The article is original, or, at least, makes a significant contribution to the field
The article adheres to the standards of academic writing and is stylistically and grammatically correct
The language in which the article is written is of adequate quality

Following the assessment of the article, we recommend the following:

Acceptance for publication in its present form	Acceptance for publication, after revision and the implementation of reviewer suggestions	Rejection